National Council of Nonprofits Welcomes New Leaders to Its Board of Directors

Washington, D.C. – The National Council of Nonprofits (NCN) announces the election of new officers and several nonprofit and philanthropic leaders to its Board of Directors.

Elected as Officers for 2023-2024 (and pictured below from left to right) are:

- Chair – Liz Moore, Executive Director, Montana Nonprofit Association
- Vice Chair – Sabeen Perwaiz, President & CEO, Florida Nonprofit Alliance
- Secretary – Christine Ortega, President, CO Effect Enterprises
- Treasurer – Sheila Bravo, President and CEO, Delaware Alliance for Nonprofit Advancement

Elected to a first three-year term on the Board of Directors are:

- Kevin Dean, Chief Executive Officer, Momentum Nonprofit Partners

- Jennifer Hutchins, Executive Director, Maine Association of Nonprofits
- Sandra Quince, Chief Executive Officer of Paradigm for Parity, through the Bank of America Leader on Loan Program
- Leon Wilson, Chief of Digital Innovation & Chief Information Officer, Cleveland Foundation

“It is both a challenging and an exciting time to take on this role,” said new Board Chair Liz Moore, Executive Director of Montana Nonprofit Association. “Nonprofits need strong supports at the state and local levels as even more activity shifts from Congress to statehouses and city halls. Our soon-to-launch Leading from Strength program could not come at a more important time in our country as more people turn to nonprofits. We will build on the successes of this network to connect, champion, and inform nonprofits across the country at a time when nonprofits are facing immense challenges.”

“Jennifer, Kevin, Leon, and Sandra bring their nonprofits experiences and vast accomplishments in the worlds of business, philanthropy, and nonprofits to further bolster the National Council of Nonprofits’ efforts on behalf of the country’s 1.4 million nonprofits,” said Tim Delaney, President and CEO of NCN. “We couldn’t be more excited about them joining our Board.”
